Up and Coming Events

September 28th – October 2nd

WELCOME BACK EVERYONE!

WE DID IT!

We made it through our first week! It has been so wonderful to see all of our students online over the past six days. Our teaching staff have been working extremely hard to ensure that our students are receiving the full effect of their amazing teaching.

We want to thank all of our families for supporting our students with getting used to their schedules and finding their ways on Zoom.

We realize that our remote learning experience can cause stress and strain on families. But, we want you to know, that we are here to support all of you in any way that we can.

It is because of your efforts, that we were able to get off to a great start! Please continue to ensure that your child/children are up and ready to begin their day by 9:00 am.

The teachers will begin each day with the morning announcements beginning at 8:45 am.

Please feel free to contact the school if you have any questions or concerns about your child's schedule for the week.

THANK YOU NATHAN HALE FAMILIES
Mrs. Teque & Mrs. Loughran

UPDATES

We have heard your concerns about the amount of screen time that the students are experiencing and their needs for additional break times.

Therefore, all students will be in asynchronous learning on Wednesdays.

This in turn will allow our students time to work independently on assignments that the teachers will provide.

During this time our teachers will be working on their remote lesson planning and participating in professional development.

We will begin Asynchronous Wednesdays beginning Wednesday, October 9th, 2020.

It is our hope that with this type of collaboration and flexibility that our students will thrive in the remote learning environment.

Sep. 21st First Day of Remote Learning!
All students will report for school online in their grade-level classes.

Sep. 21st – International Day of Peace

Sep. 21st – Autumn Equinox (First day of Fall)

Sep. 27th – Yom Kippur begins at sundown

What is Yom Kippur?

Yom Kippur, also known as the Day of Atonement, is the holiest day of the year in Judaism. Its central themes are atonement and repentance. Jews traditionally observe this holy day with a day-long fast and intensive prayer, often spending most of the day in synagogue services.

Parent & School Site Council

Oct. 6th - Parent Council Meeting at 5:30 pm.

Please join the current council and the Hale administration as we share our work from the prior year, and hold elections for the new year.

A zoom link will be sent out to everyone on Friday, October 2, 2020.

We Need You!
